1. How would you describe 'sisterhood' in ADPi terms?

A. A temporary friendship during college years.

B. A supportive, lifelong bond among members built on shared values and mutual care.

C. A formal sister band with uniform.

D. A mentorship program for new members only.

Sisterhood in ADPi is a lifelong, values-based bond among members. It means supporting and uplifting one another across all stages of life, grounded in shared commitments and mutual care, and carried forward beyond college into alumnae networks. This enduring connection is anchored in Love, Honor, and Truth, guiding friendships, service, and personal growth. It isn't just a temporary campus friendship, nor a ceremonial band with a uniform, nor a mentoring program limited to new members. The description that emphasizes a supportive, lifelong bond built on shared values and mutual care best captures how ADPi sisters relate to each other.

2. Which approach supports member growth through guidance and mentorship?

A. Mandatory exams

B. Social events only

C. Mentorship

D. Financial audits

Guidance and ongoing support through mentorship directly fosters member growth by pairing experienced sisters with newer members, giving them a trusted mentor to coach, model behavior, and provide feedback. This relationship helps develop leadership skills, communication, responsibility, and confidence as members set goals, reflect on progress, and navigate chapter responsibilities. It creates a pathway for personal and chapter contribution that lasts beyond a single event or requirement. Other options miss that developmental, relational component: mandatory exams emphasize evaluating knowledge rather than growing through guidance; social events alone strengthen bonding but don't provide structured, ongoing mentorship; financial audits focus on financial procedures rather than personal development within the sisterhood.

3. Nor taketh _____ against the innocent.

A. Reward

B. Penalty

C. Punishment

D. Harm

This line hinges on an archaic sense of "taketh" meaning "takes/accepts," with "reward" used to mean a bribe or inducement. In this context, the phrase expresses not accepting a reward to act against an innocent person. "Reward" fits naturally and keeps the old-fashioned tone of the wording. The other options don't form a natural or idiomatic phrase with "taketh against the innocent"—a penalty or punishment isn't something you "take against" someone, and "harm" would be awkward here and would require a different construction.

4. ADPI originated at Wesleyan College located in which city?

A. Atlanta

B. Macon

C. Savannah

D. Columbus

ADPi began at Wesleyan College, which is in Macon, Georgia. In 1851, four women formed the group that would become Alpha Delta Pi, making it the first sorority founded in a college setting. So the city associated with its origin is Macon.

5. Which title is specifically associated with overseeing recruitment and membership activities?

A. President

B. Treasurer

C. Recruitment/Membership Chair

D. Standards/Integrity Chair

The position focused on recruitment and membership activities is the Recruitment/Membership Chair. This role is specifically tasked with planning and coordinating recruitment events, guiding potential new members through the intake process, and overseeing new member education and orientation. The president leads the chapter as a whole, but recruitment and membership tasks are not the central responsibility of the presidency. The treasurer handles finances, and the Standards/Integrity Chair concentrates on conduct and ethics, so neither is primarily responsible for recruitment efforts. Therefore, this title is the best fit for overseeing recruitment and membership activities.

6. Which statement best describes the founding site's significance?

A. It marks the sorority's origins and historic roots.

B. It marks the sorority's expansion into new regions.

C. It serves as the location for all major rituals today.

D. It is the site of the first chapter charter ceremony.

The founding site embodies where Alpha Delta Pi began, capturing the sorority's origins and historic roots. It's the place where the founders gathered to form the organization, establishing its purpose, values, and early traditions. That location acts as a symbolic link to the past, helping current members connect with the vision and heritage that started ADPi. While expansion, current ritual sites, or later charter ceremonies reflect other aspects of the sorority's history, the founding site is best described by its role as the origin and historical anchor of ADPi. For context, ADPi was founded at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia.

7. What are the official colors of Alpha Delta Pi?

A. Crimson and gold.

B. Emerald green and silver.

C. Purple and gold.

D. Azure blue and white.

Azure blue and white are Alpha Delta Pi's official colors. This pairing is central to the sorority's identity and appears in banners, regalia, and insignia, helping members recognize and represent ADPi consistently. The colors complement the diamond motif that is a key symbol for the sorority, and they're used across ceremonies and official materials to unify chapters. The other color combos belong to different organizations and don't align with ADPi's established color identity.

8. Through which channels are concerns about chapter behavior typically addressed?

A. The chapter's complaint procedures and appropriate officers or headquarters.

B. Informal chats with peers.

C. Campus security only.

D. Public grievance forums.

When concerns about chapter behavior arise, the proper path is through the sorority's formal complaint procedures and the designated officers or headquarters. These official channels are designed to handle issues consistently, maintain confidentiality, and ensure due process. They guide members through reporting, investigation, and resolution steps, and connect concerns to people with the authority to act—such as chapter leadership, standards committees, advisors, or the national headquarters. This ensures actions align with ADPi policies and risk-management expectations. Informal chats with peers can be supportive but lack formal documentation, oversight, and the authority to implement policy-based solutions. Campus security focuses on immediate safety threats, not internal governance or conduct concerns. Public grievance forums are public and bypass the structured review process, which can lead to misunderstandings or unfair treatment. So, the established complaint procedures and appropriate officers or headquarters provide a fair, confidential, and effective resolution.

9. How many founders did ADPI have?

A. Five

B. Six

C. Seven

D. Four

Alpha Delta Pi was founded by four women at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia, in 1851. The four founders are Eugenia Tucker Fitzgerald, Sophronia Woodruff Dews, Ella Pierce Turner, and Elizabeth Williams. These four are traditionally referred to as the Four Founders, so the number of founders is four. The option claiming six doesn't fit because the group originated as four, not six.

SAMPLE

10. Which of the following is among the six ADPI founders?

A. Sophronia Woodruff Davis

B. Amelia Earhart

C. Clara Barton

D. Helen Keller

Alpha Delta Pi was founded at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia in 1851 by six women who formed the sisterhood. Sophronia Woodruff Davis is one of those six founders, alongside Eugenia Tucker Fitzgerald, Ella Pierce Turner, Elizabeth Williams Mitchell, Stella George Stern Perry, and Mary Evans Glass. The other names listed—Amelia Earhart, Clara Barton, and Helen Keller—are famous figures from history, but they are not founders of ADPI. Recognizing Sophronia Woodruff Davis helps you recall the original group that started the sorority.
